Independent Councils By-law

Our Independent Councils By-law gives details for the setup and management of Independent Councils.

Independent Councils function as independent entities providing direction to the Board on areas of expertise. They undertake specific business on behalf of Dietitians Australia.

Download our Independent Councils By-law.