Dietetic Skills Recognition (DSR) By-law

Dietetic Skills Recognition (DSR) is the assessment of competence as a dietitian for:

- Overseas qualified dietitians.
- Australian qualified dietitians who have been out of the workforce and APD program for 5 years or more. They would like to return to the APD program under the resumption of practice program.
- Dietitians who need to be reaccredited after a complaint or disciplinary action.

Our Dietetic Skills Recognition By-law details policy and procedure for the program.
