

Dietetic Skills Recognition Examination Reference Group Terms of Reference

Our Dietetic Skills Recognition \(DSR\) process assesses the skills and knowledge of overseas-qualified dietitians to work in Australia.

The second stage of the DSR process is a Multiple Choice Question (MCQ) exam.

The third stage of the DSR process is an oral exam.

The DSR Examination Reference Group ensures the integrity of the examination process for DSR by leading the preparation, evaluation and revision of the MCQ and oral exam questions.

The Examination Reference Group Terms of Reference defines the:

- composition of the reference group
- role and functions of the group
- reporting responsibility of the group

Download our Dietetic Skills Recognition Examination Reference Group Terms of Reference