Federal election scorecard

We asked the Liberal National Party (LNP), the Australian Labor Party (ALP) and the Greens to complete an election scorecard, rating their commitments to our five federal election requests.

These include the areas of aged care, mental health, disability, and policy for equal access to nutrition for all Australians.

Learn more about our priorities for the federal election in our briefing paper.

On 16 May 2022, the Australian Labor Party (ALP), provided a response to Dietitians Australia's election priorities. The scorecard below has been updated to reflect this response.

Download the scorecard.

Read the full LNP response.

Read the full Greens response.

Read the ALP response and their completed scorecard.

Dietitians Australia

FEDERAL ELECTION SCORECARD 2022

	Labor	LNP	Greens
AGED CARE Mandatory malnutrition screening in residential and in-home aged care.	✕	✕	✓
AGED CARE Mandating annual food and nutrition reviews in homes by a dietitian, as a condition of receiving the federal $10 basic daily fee supplement.	½	✕	✓
MENTAL HEALTH Establishing Medicare benefit items to ensure equal access to be treated by a dietitian for people living with depression.	✕	½	✓
DISABILITIES Establishing Medicare benefit items to ensure affordable, equal access to dietitian services for children living with autism, pervasive developmental disorder and disability.	✕	✕	✓
POLICY Develop a National Nutrition Policy and implementation Action Plans.	✕	✓	✓

GET IN TOUCH

Get in touch

If you have questions about this scorecard, contact us at policy@dietitiansaustralia.org.au