

Federal election scorecard

We asked the Liberal National Party (LNP), the Australian Labor Party (ALP) and the Greens to complete an election scorecard, rating their commitments to our five federal election requests.

These include the areas of aged care, mental health, disability, and policy for equal access to nutrition for all Australians.

Learn more about our priorities for the federal election in our briefing paper.

On 16 May 2022, the Australian Labor Party (ALP), provided a response to Dietitians Australia's election priorities. The scorecard below has been updated to reflect this response.

Download the scorecard.

Read the full LNP response.

Read the full Greens response.

Read the ALP response and their completed scorecard.

 FEDERAL ELECTION SCORECARD 2022
Dietitians Australia has asked the Liberal National Party, Australian Labor Party and the Greens to complete an election scorecard, rating their commitments to our five federal election requests. The results are below. On 16 May 2022, the Australian Labor Party (ALP) provided a response to Dietitians Australia's election priorities. The scorecard below has been updated to reflect this response.
Read the LNP response. Read the ALP response. Read the ALP response.

AGED CARE Increase expenditure on aged care, residential and in-home aged care	✗	✗	✓
AGED CARE Increase aged care funding by a further 10% over the next four years	1/2	✗	✓
MENTAL HEALTH Expand and enhance mental health services, including a national mental health strategy	✗	1/2	✓
DISABILITIES Expand and enhance disability services, including a national disability strategy	✗	✗	✓
POLICY Priority of National Nutrition Policy and implementation Action Plan	✗	✓	✓

Get in touch

If you have questions about this scorecard, contact us at policy@dietitiansaustralia.org.au