Recommendation 1	Principles of the new aged care system A new act
1.1.	The Aged Care Act 1997 (Cth) should be replaced with a new Act to come into force by no later than 1 July 2023. The objects of the new Act should be to:
1.1.	(a) provide a system of aged care based on a universal right to high quality, safe and timely support and care to: i. assist older people to live an active, self-determined and meaningful life, and ii. ensure older people receive high quality care in a safe and caring environment for dignified living in old age
1.1.	(b) protect and advance the rights of older people receiving aged care to be free from mistreatment and neglect, and harm from poor quality or unsafe care, and to continue to enjoy rights of social participation accessible to members of society generally
1.1.	(c) enable people entitled to aged care to exercise choice and control in the planning and delivery of their care
	(d) ensure equity of access to aged care

1.2.	(b) the Australian Aged Care Pricing Authority
1.2.	(c) the office of the Inspector-General of Aged Care
1.2.	and by the other provisions of the Act.
1.3.	The new Act should:
1.3.	(a) define aged care as:
	i. support and care for people to maintain their independence as they age, including support and care to ameliorate age-related deterioration in their social, mental and physical capacities to function independently 1.0	ii. supports including respite for informal carers of people who need aged care 1.3.	(b) provide that the paramount consideration in the administration of the Act should be ensuring the safety, health and
1.0	wellbeing of people receiving aged care
1.3.	(c) specify the following principles that should also guide the administration of the Act:
	i. Older people should have certainty that they will receive timely high quality support and care in accordance with assessed need
	ii. Informal carers of older people should have certainty that they will receive timely and high quality supports in accordance with assessed need iii. Older people should be supported to exercise choice about their own lives and make decisions to the fullest extent possible, including being able to take risks and be involved in the planning and delivery of their care iv. Older people should be treated as individuals and be provided with support and care in a way that promotes their dignity and respects them as equal citizens v. Older people are entitled to pursue (and to be supported in pursuing) physical, social, emotional and intellectual development and to be active and engaged members of the community, regardless of their age or level of physical or cognitive capability vi. The relationships that older people have with significant people in their lives should be acknowledged, respected and fostered
	vii. To the fullest extent possible, older people should receive support and care in the location they choose or, where that is not possible, in the setting most appropriate to their circumstances and preferences viii. Older people are entitled to receive support and care that acknowledges the aged care setting is their home and enables them to live in security, safety and comfort with their privacy respected ix. Older people should have equal access to support and care irrespective of their location or personal circumstances or preferences
	x. Care should be provided in a healthy environment which protects older people from risks to their health xi. Care and supports should, as far as possible, emphasise restoration and rehabilitation, with the aim of maintaining or improving older people's physical and cognitive capabilities and supporting their self-determination xii. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are entitled to received support and care that is culturally safe and recognises the importance of their personal connection to community and Country xiii. The system should support the availability and accessibility of aged care for all older Australians, including special or vulnerable groups
1.4.	The new Act should specify a list of rights of people seeking and receiving aged care, and should declare that the purposes of the Act include the purpose of securing those rights and that the rights may be taken into account in interpreting the Act and any instrument made under the Act. The list of such rights should be:
1.4.	(a) for people seeking aged care:		_
	i. the right to equitable access to care services ii. the right to exercise choice between available services 1.4.	(b) for people receiving aged care
	i. the right to freedom from degrading or inhumane treatment, or any form of abuse ii. the right to liberty, freedom of movement, and freedom from restraint iii. the right of autonomy, the right to the presumption of legal capacity, and in particular the right to make decisions about their care and the quality of their lives and the right to social participation iv. the right to fair, equitable and non-discriminatory treatment in receiving care 1.4.	(c) for people receiving end-of-life care, the right to fair, equitable and non-discriminatory access to palliative and end-of-life care.
1.5.	Unless indicated otherwise, the new Act should incorporate provisions giving effect to amendments to the Aged Care Act 1997 (Cth) and the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission Act 2018 (Cth) (as well as to delegated legislation made under those Acts) the subject of other recommendations.
Recommendation 2	Integrated long-term support and care for older people 2.1.	The Australian Government should coordinate the development of an integrated system for the long-term support and care of older people providing for their needs for welfare support, community services directed at enhancing social participation, affordable and appropriate housing, high quality health care, and aged care, through a new National Cabinet Reform Committee on Ageing and Older Australians, to be established between the Australian and State and Territory Governments, and composed of the highest-ranking ministers whose primary responsibility is the care, health and wellbeing of older people.

.2.	Work on a strategy to develop the integrated system for the long-term support and care of older people should begin immediately. That work should involve consultation with older people. The strategy should be agreed between the Australian and State and Territory Governments by 31 December 2022. The strategy should include measurable goals, regular reporting on progress to the National Federation Reform Council, and two-yearly public progress reports.
3.	The strategy should provide for implementation of an integrated system for the long-term support and care of older people
5.	within a 10-year period.
	Design of the new aged care system ecommendation 3	Australian Aged Care Commission
1.	By 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should be established under the new Act as a corporate Commonwealth entity within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 (Cth), with its own legal personality, and able to sue and be sued. The Commission should be independent of Ministerial direction, and there should be a requirement that any expectations or advice provided by the responsible Minister to the Commission should be made public. The Commission should have:
.1.	(a) a governing board appointed by the Governor-General, in which the authority and functions of the Commission should be vested under the new Act, comprising:
	i. at least three non-executive members, who are to constitute the majority of the board and one of whom is to be appointed as chair of the board, and who are to be chosen for their integrity, eminence and public standing, each of whom must be independent of any current involvement in the aged care sector, and who together are representative of the community and should have a range of backgrounds and skills including experience and proven capacity in: aged care, clinical services, human services, legal services, and corporate governance; and in one or more of the financial, accounting or general business areas ii. the Secretary of the Department administered by the responsible Minister, who shall be an ex officio member of the board
	iii. the presiding commissioner of the Commission, who shall be the chief executive officer of the Commission and may participate in the deliberations of the board of the Commission except where the presiding commissioner has a material personal interest in the subject matter under deliberation
.1.	(b) no fewer than five assistant commissioners to be appointed by the board on the basis of their integrity, standing, skills, and expertise, one of whom must be a person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background, one of whom will be responsible for complaints, and another of whom will have workforce development and training as a dedicated portfolio
.1.	(c) staff employed or engaged by the Commission (whether under the provisions of the Public Service Act 1999 (Cth) or 4	otherwise), who should be subject to the direction and supervision of the commissioners
.1.	(d) a distributed network of offices including regional offices to deliver or manage the delivery of assessment and care finding services, administer the aged care program, and provide general assistance to the public, and a head office outside Canberra
.1.	(e) system management functions, including support and funding of local assessment and care finding teams and
.1.	personnel, provision of information on services and providers (including through My Aged Care), system data management, ensuring the coverage of service availability for all aged care services to which people are assessed as eligible, commissioning and funding of providers to provide sufficient aged care services in all locations, providing assistance to providers to build capacity where appropriate, and managing the orderly exit of consistently poor-performing providers
.1.	(f) the following functions:
	i. approval of service providers as providers eligible to receive subsidies for providing aged care
	ii. financial risk monitoring of providers, and prudential regulation of providers
	iii. approval of the scope of subsidised services approved providers may provide, and accreditation of the outlets ('services') through which they provide them iv. payment of subsidies to approved providers of aged care
	v. quality and safety regulation of approved providers and their services vi. ensuring that appropriate aged care services are widely available for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
	vii. workforce planning and development, including setting and refining requirements for minimum staffing levels and minimum qualifications for staff providing care, and (through a workforce planning division within or operated by the Commission) ongoing development of workforce capacity through requirements for training and professional development viii. consulting with the Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health and Aged Care (which is to be responsible under the new Act for review and setting of quality and safety standards and quality indicators) on reviews and revisions of the standards and indicators for the provision of safe and high quality aged care ix. management of complaints about providers, staff, assessors and care finders

3.1.	(g) the primary responsibility for system governance, including the responsibility of continuously monitoring the performance of the system, formulating new policy and reform proposals for improvement of the performance of the system, limited authority to make legislative instruments about the details of arrangements for the administration of funding and service delivery, and the responsibility for recommending other amendments of legislation and delegated legislation to the responsible Minister 3.1.	(h) an obligation to report regularly to the Inspector-General of Aged Care and to the responsible Minister on the
2.1	performance of its functions 3.1.	(i) an obligation to lay before the Parliament and to publish an annual report on all important aspects of the operation of the new Act, including:
	i. the extent of unmet demand for aged care, including unmet demand for particular services or in particular places ii. the adequacy of the Commonwealth subsidies provided to meet the care needs of people needing or receiving aged care
	iii. the extent to which providers are complying with their responsibilities under the Act iv. the amounts paid by people receiving residential care in connection with their care, including amounts paid for accommodation and daily living needs
	v. the amounts paid for accommodation in the form of lump sum deposits and in the form of daily payments vi. the duration of waiting periods for assessment, and between assessment and commencement of provision of particular services, including respite and residential care vii. the extent of building, upgrading and refurbishment of aged care facilities, and viii. such other aspects of the operation of the Act as the Commission considers relevant to ensure an accurate understanding of the operation of the Act.

	providers, health and allied health professionals, specialists in training and education, and independent experts.
4.1.	The Advisory Council should be established with its own secretariat, funded by the Australian Government, for the purpose	Support of providing advice on aged care policy, service arrangements and any aspect of the performance of the aged care system, to the Australian Aged Care Commission and the Minister. It should convene itself regularly, and should have authority to provide advice to the Commission and the Minister on its own initiative. In addition, the Commission and the Minister should have authority to convene it on reasonable notice, and may refer particular issues to it for advice.
Recommendation 5	Australian Aged Care Pricing Authority 5.1.	The Australian Government should establish an Aged Care Pricing Authority and confer on it all necessary functions for determining prices (inclusive of subsidies and user contributions) for specified aged care services so as to meet the reasonable and efficient costs of delivering those services. Its functions should include the function of identifying and recommending to the Australian Aged Care Commission the aged care services for which price cap determinations or other forms of economic regulation may be appropriate.
Recommendation 6	Inspector-General of Aged Care 6.1.	The Australian Government should establish an independent office of the Inspector-General of Aged Care to monitor and 6.1	report on the administration and governance of the aged care system, including:

6.2.	An Inspector-General should be appointed forthwith under interim administrative arrangements, and should in due course
0.2.	be established formally under the new Act.
Recommendation 7	Enhanced invididual advocacy		l
7.1.	By 1 July 2022, the Australian Government should, through the implementation unit referred to in Recommendation 123, complete a consultation with the contracted provider of services under the National Aged Care Advocacy program in order to determine the extent of unmet demand for prompt advocacy services by people seeking or receiving aged care services.
	In light of the conclusions reached by the implementation unit after that consultation, the Australian Government should increase the funding of the National Aged Care Advocacy program to a level that provides for increased coverage of the program so as to meet currently unmet demand for prompt advocacy services.

5.1.	do not have a package or do not have a package at the level they have been approved for (as set out in their letter from the Aged Care Assessment Team/Service). The package allocated should be at the level the person was approved for (Level 1, 2, 3 or 4). This must be completed by 31 December 2021 9.1.	(b) keeping the waiting list clear by allocating a home care package at the approved level to any new entrants to the waiting list within one month of the date of their assessment. This must occur between 1 January 2022 and 1 July 2024 9.1.	(c) publicly reporting, each quarter, the status of the waiting list, showing progress in clearing the waiting list as set out in paragraphs a. and b. above, at a national, State or Territory, and regional level. This report should include reasons for delay in clearing the waiting list and actions being taken to address the delay. This must occur every quarter from 31 March 2021 to 1 July 2024.
Recommendation 10	Care finders to support navigation of aged care 10.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should engage, support and fund 'care finders' to provide assistance on a local, face-to-face basis, to people seeking or receiving aged care services. The care finders should be Commonwealth, State or Territory or local government employees who have suitable skills and experience in meeting the needs of people for aged care, health care, social work or other human services, or otherwise demonstrate aptitude for a highly trusted role in assisting older people who have such needs.
10.2.	Pending establishment of the Commission, the implementation unit referred to in Recommendation 123 should commence engagement of care finders.
Recommendation 11	Improved public awareness of aged care 11.1.	By 1 July 2022, the Australian Government in cooperation with other levels of government, and working with health professionals, aged care providers and Primary Health Networks, should fund and support education and information strategies to:
11.1.	(a) improve public awareness of resources to assist people to plan for ageing and potential aged care needs
11.1.	(b) improve knowledge about aged care among those responsible professionals with whom older people have frequent contact
11.1.	(c) encourage discussion about and consideration of aged care needs.
11.2.	These strategies should be implemented by 1 July 2022 and should:
11.2.	(a) support a continuum of planning for ageing, including consideration of health care preferences, finances, housing and social engagement
11.2.	(b) bring older people's general practitioners to the centre of their planning for ageing and aged care
11.2.	(c) be evaluated and revised annually by the Australian Aged Care Commission.

	and
	iii. ensuring a mechanism exists for approved providers to effectively and securely transfer information about a consumer when the consumer changes service providers.
6.3.	The Australian Institute of Health and Welfare Act 1987 (Cth), and other legislation as required, should be amended as necessary to achieve the objectives of this recommendation. This should include ensuring the Institute has the powers and responsibilities necessary to undertake the curation and publication of the aged care national minimum dataset.
6.4.	The Australian Institute of Health and Welfare should accredit software used by approved providers and, where relevant, data custodians assessed as compatible with the dataset specifications of the aged care national minimum dataset.
	Accommodation
Recommendation 57	Improving the design of aged care accommodation 57.1.	The Australian Government should guide the design of more appropriate residential aged care accommodation for older people by:
57.1.	(a) developing and publishing by 1 July 2022 a comprehensive set of national aged care design principles and guidelines on accessible and dementia-friendly design for residential aged care, which should be:
	i. capable of application to 'small home' models of accommodation as well as to enablement and respite accommodation settings
	ii. amended from time to time as necessary to reflect contemporary best practice 57.1.	(b) implementing by no later than 1 July 2023 a program to promote adoption of the National Aged Care Design Principles and Guidelines in design and construction of residential aged care buildings, which program should include:
	i. industry education, including sharing of best practice models ii. financial incentives, whether by increased accommodation supplements or capital grants or other measures or a combination of such measures, for residential aged care buildings that comply with the Guidelines 57.1.	(c) advancing to the National Federation Reform Council by 1 July 2025 a proposal for amendments to Class 9c of the National Construction Code to require the adoption of accessible and dementia-friendly design standards for any new residential aged care buildings, or those proposed to be substantially refurbished, according to specifications informed by the National Aged Care Design Principles and Guidelines.
Recommendation 58	Capital grants for 'small home' models of accommodation
8.1.	The Australian Government should expand, with effect from 1 January 2022, the Rural, Regional and Other Special Needs Building Fund to provide additional capital grants for building or upgrading residential aged care facilities to provide small scale congregate living.
8.2.	A majority of the people who receive, or who will receive, aged care at the premises to which any such grant relates should, within the meaning of section 7 of the Grant Principles 2014 (Cth), be one or more of the following:

58.2.	(a) supported residents, concessional residents or assisted residents
58.2.	(b) people with special needs
58.2.	(c) low-means care recipients
58.2.	(d) people who live in a location where there is a demonstrated need for additional residential care services
58.2.	(e) people who do not live in a major city.
58.3.	A capital grants program for building or upgrading residential aged care facilities to provide small scale congregate living should continue after the introduction of the new Act.
	Younger people in residential aged care Recommendation 59	No younger people in residential aged care 59.1.	The Australian Government should immediately put in place the means to achieve, and to monitor and report on progress towards, the commitments announced by the Australian Prime Minister on 25 November 2019 to ensure that:
59.1.	(a) no person under the age of 65 enters residential aged care from 1 January 2022		-
59.1.	(b) no person under the age of 45 lives in residential aged care from 1 January 2022
59.1.	(c) no person under the age of 65 lives in residential aged care from 1 January 2025 by:
59.1.	(a) referring for assessment by the agency most appropriate for the assessment of the person concerned, such as the National Disability Insurance Agency (and not an Aged Care Assessment Team or Aged Care Assessment Service), any younger person who is at risk of entering residential aged care 59.1.	(b) developing hospital discharge protocols with State and Territory Governments to prevent discharge into residential aged care of any younger person 59.1.	(c) developing, funding and implementing with State and Territory Governments programs for short-term and long-term accommodation and care options for any younger person who is:
	i. living in or at risk of entering residential aged care and
	ii. not eligible to be a participant in the National Disability Insurance Scheme 59.1.	(d) requiring the National Disability Insurance Agency to publish an annual Specialist Disability Accommodation National

59.1.	(e) providing directly for, where appropriate and necessary, accommodation in the Specialist Disability Accommodation market, particularly in thin or underdeveloped markets
59.1.	(f) funding dedicated and individualised advocacy services for younger people who are living in or at risk of entering residential aged care
59.1.	(g) collecting data on an ongoing basis, and publishing up-to-date collected data each quarter, on, for each State and Territory, the number of younger people living in residential aged care and, among other things i. their age ranges
	ii. the average length of time in residential aged care iii. the numbers of admissions into and discharges from residential aged care, and
	iv. the reasons for younger people exiting from residential aged care, such as death, turning 65 years old or moving into the E0 1	community (h) having the responsible Minister report to the Parliament every six months about progress towards achieving the 59.1.	announced commitments, and 59.1.	(i) ensuring that a younger person will only ever live in residential aged care if it is in the demonstrable best interests of the 55.1.	particular person (and is independently certified to be such by someone with suitable skills, experience, training and knowledge of the person) in limited and exceptional circumstances such as, for instance, where:
	i. the person will turn 65 years old within a short period of time, being no more than three months, after entering into residential aged care
	ii. the person's close relatives over 65 years of age live in a residential aged care facility and the person would suffer serious hardship on being separated from those relatives iii. an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person between the age of 50 and 64 years old elects to live in residential aged care.
	Aged care for people with disability
Recommendation 60	Equity for people with disability receiving aged care 60.1.	By 1 July 2024, every aged care recipient with a disability or disabilities, regardless of when acquired, should receive through the aged care program daily living supports and outcomes (including assistive technologies, aids and equipment) equivalent to those that would be available under the National Disability Insurance Scheme to a person with the same or substantially similar conditions.
Recommendation 61	Annual reporting to Parliament by the Disability Discrimination Commissioner and the Age Discrimination
	Commissioner
61.1.	By 1 July 2024, the Disability Discrimination Commissioner and the Age Discrimination Commissioner should be required, as part of the new National Disability Strategy, to report annually to the Parliament on the numbers of aged care recipients with disabilities who are 65 years old or older and their ability to access daily living supports and outcomes (including assistive technologies, aids and equipment) equivalent to those available under the National Disability Insurance Scheme.

	Better access to health care Recommendation 62	A new primary care model to improve access 62.1.	Commencing by no later than 1 January 2024, the Australian Government should implement a new voluntary primary care
62.2.	model for people receiving aged care. The new primary care model would have the following characteristics:
62.2.	(a) general practices may, if they choose, apply to the Australian Government to become accredited aged care general
02.2.	practices
62.2.	(b) the initial accreditation criteria would be:
	i. accreditation with the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners ii. participation in after-hours cooperative arrangements, and
	iii. use of My Health Record 62.2.	(c) over time, as aged care general practices mature, the accreditation requirements could be strengthened 62.2.	(d) each accredited aged care general practice would enrol people receiving residential care or personal care at home who
 	choose to be enrolled with that practice
62.2.	(e) each accredited aged care general practice would receive an annual capitation payment for every enrolled person, 62.2.	based on the person's level of assessed need (f) an accredited aged care general practice would agree with each enrolled person and the person's aged care provider on
02.2.	how care will be provided, including by any use of telehealth services and nurse practitioners
62.2.	(g) the accredited aged care general practice would be required to:
02.2.	i. meet the primary health care needs of each enrolled older person (including through any cooperative arrangements with other general practices to provide after-hours care if required) ii. use My Health Record in conjunction with aged care providers
	iii. initiate and take part in regular medication management reviews iv. prepare an 'Aged Care Plan' (in collaboration with a geriatrician and the aged care provider and others) for each enrolled person
	v. accept any person who wishes to enrol with it (subject to geography) to avoid practices accepting only patients with less complex care needs, and
	vi. report on performance against a range of performance indicators, including immunisation rates and prescribing rates 62.2.	(h) the capitation payment would be reduced by the value of benefits paid when an enrolled person sees a general practitioner in another practice.
62.3.	The Australian Government should undertake a thorough evaluation of the new primary care model in 2030 and make appropriate adjustments to the model at that time.
Recommendation 63	Royal Australian College of General Practitioners' accreditation requirements	1
63.1.	By 31 December 2021, the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners should amend its Standards for general practices to allow for accreditation of general practices which practise exclusively in providing primary health care to aged Decomposite tion C4	care recipients in residential aged care facilities and in their own homes.
Recommendation 64	Access to specialists and other health practitioners through Multidisciplinary Outreach Services By 1 January 2022, the Australian and State and Territory Governments should introduce Local Hospital Network-led 64.1.	multidisciplinary outreach services.
64.2.	These services should be funded through amendment of the National Health Reform Agreement, and all aged care
04.2.	recipients receiving residential care or personal care at home should have access based on clinical need.
64.3.	The amended National Health Reform Agreement should include a recurrent and sustainable funding mechanism to stimulate outreach services. The level of funding should be based on underlying costs as determined by the Independent Hospital Pricing Authority.
64.4.	The key features of the model should include:
64.4.	(a) provision of services in a person's place of residence wherever possible
64.4.	(b) multidisciplinary teams, including nurse practitioners, allied health practitioners and pharmacists		Dietitians Australia is supportive of the model for multi-discip

Recommendation 66	Establish a Senior Dental Benefits Scheme
66.1.	The Australian Government should establish a new Senior Dental Benefits Scheme, commencing no later than 1 January 66.1.	2023, which will: (a) fund dental services to people who:
00.1.	i. live in residential aged care, or
	ii. live in the community and receive the age pension or qualify for the Commonwealth Seniors Health Card 66.1.	(b) include benefits set at a level that minimises gap payments, and includes additional subsidies for outreach services
00.1.	provided to people who are unable to travel, with weightings for travel in remote areas
66.1.	(c) provide benefits for services limited to treatment required to maintain a functional dentition (as defined by the World Health Organization) with a minimum of 20 teeth.
Recommendation 67	Short-term changes to the Medicare Benefits Schedule to improve access to medical and allied health services	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
67.1.	The Australian Government should:
67.1.	(a) create new Medicare Benefits Schedule items by 1 November 2021 to allow for a benefit to be paid for a comprehensive health assessment, whether conducted by a general practitioner or a nurse practitioner, when an aged care	2 recipient begins to receive residential aged care or personal care at home and at six month intervals thereafter, or more frequently if there is a material change in a person's circumstances or health 67.1.	(b) immediately amend the Medicare Benefits Schedule to allow benefits to be paid under the GP Mental Health Treatment	t

67.1.	(c) create new Medicare Benefits Schedule items by 1 November 2021 for:
	i. a mental health assessment, and subsequent development of a treatment plan, by a general practitioner or psychiatrist, within two months of a person's entry into residential aged care ii. three monthly re-assessments or reviews of a mental health assessment by a general practitioner, psychiatrist, or psychologist
67.1.	(d) create new Medicare Benefits Schedule items by 1 November 2021, with the value of the benefit aligned with recommended professional fees, for allied mental health practitioners providing services to people in residential aged care
	and:
	i. the number of services for which a benefit is payable should be based on clinical advice
	ii. these benefits should cease on 1 January 2023, when the aged care allied health funding arrangement is established 67.1.	(e) amend the General Practitioner Aged Care Access Incentive payment to:
	i. increase the minimum annual number of services required by general practitioners to qualify for the payment and the amount of the corresponding payment ii. introduce incremental increases to the amount of the payment for general practitioners who deliver more the minimum annual number of services and index these amounts on the same basis as Medicare Benefits Schedule general practitioner attendance items.
Recommendation 68	Enhance the Rural Health Outreach Fund to improve access to medical specialists for people receiving aged care 69.1	The Australian Covernment should
68.1. 68.1	The Australian Government should:
68.1.	(a) amend the priorities of the Rural Health Outreach Fund by 1 July 2021 to include delivery of: i. geriatrician services in regional, rural and remote Australia, and
	ii. medical specialist services to people receiving aged care in regional, rural and remote Australia all resources developed by the implementation unit.

85.3.	The functions of the Aged Care Pricing Authority should include:
85.3.	(a) providing expert advice to the Australian Aged Care Commission on optimal forms for funding arrangements for particular types of aged care services and in particular market circumstances 85.3.	(b) reviewing data and conducting studies relating to the costs of providing aged care services

Recommendation 86	Requirement to participate in Aged Care Pricing Authority activities	l
86.1.	By 1 July 2022, the Accountability Principles 2014 (Cth) should be amended to require participation by approved providers in cost data reviews.
86.2.	By 1 July 2023, the new Act should require that as a condition of approval or continued approval, aged care providers are required to participate in any activities the Aged Care Pricing Authority requires to undertake its functions, including transmitting cost data in a format required by the Authority for the purposes of costing studies. The Aged Care Pricing Authority should take costs associated with these activities into account when determining funding levels.
Recommendation 87	Services to be funded through a combination of block and activity based funding	· classification system should take into account the above recommendations for high quality aged care. On-going evidence-based reviews should be conducted thereafter to refine the model iteratively, for the purpose of ensuring that the model accurate classification and funding to meet assessed needs.

88.2.	The implementation date of 1 July 2022 is needed to support Recommendations 46.2 and 46.3. However, the independent pricing capability referred to in Recommendations 5 and 85 is unlikely to be developed by that time. Therefore an estimated National Weighted Average Unit (NWAU) for interim application of a casemix-adjusted funding model such as AN	- ACC should be calculated by or on behalf of the implementation unit and applied to fund approved providers of residential care prior to the commencement of independent pricing by the Aged Care Pricing Authority.
Recommendation 89	Maximum funding amounts for care at home
89.1.	With effect from 1 July 2024, the Australian Government should ensure that the maximum Commonwealth funding 00.1	amount available for a person receiving care at home is the same as the maximum Commonwealth funding amount that would be made available to provide care for them if they were assessed for care a residential aged care service.
Recommendation 90	Framework for the assessment of funding to incentivise an enablement approach to residential care 90.1.	From 1 July 2022, the following enablement incentives should be incorporated into the rules, principles and guidelines for assessment and funding eligibility:
90.1.	(a) where reassessment determines that a person is entitled to a higher level of funding, and the approved provider can Authority.

	Prudential regulation and financial oversight ecommendation 100	Prudential regulation by the Australian Aged Care Commission 00.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should be given the statutory role as the prudential regulator for aged care with responsibility for ensuring that, under all reasonable circumstances, providers of aged care have the ongoing financial capacity to deliver high quality care and meet their obligations to repay accommodation lump sums as and when the need arises.
00.2.	The Commission should also be given the statutory role of developing and implementing an effective financial reporting

01.2.	In this context prudential matters are matters relating to:
01.3.	(a) the conduct of the affairs of approved providers in such a way as to:
	i. ensure that providers remain in a sound financial position, or
	ii. ensure continuity of care in the aged care system, or 01.4.	(b) the conduct of the affairs of approved providers with integrity, prudence and professional skill.
ecommendation 102	Liquidity requirements 02.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should be empowered under statute to impose liquidity requirements on approved providers of residential aged care which hold refundable accommodation deposits, for the purpose of ensuring that such providers are able to repay refundable accommodation deposits promptly as and when required without jeopardising their financial viability.
ecommendation 103	Capital adequacy requirements 03.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should be empowered under statute to impose capital adequacy requirements on approved providers for the purpose of ensuring that providers maintain adequate net assets above the liabilities they owe.
ecommendation 104
	More stringent financial reporting requirements 04.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should be empowered under statute to require approved providers to submit regular financial reports.
04.2.	The frequency and form of the reports should be prescribed by the Commission.
ecommendation 105	Continuous disclosure requirements in relation to prudential reporting 05.1.	From 1 July 2023, approved providers should be required under statute to comply with continuous disclosure requirements, under which an approved provider that becomes aware of material information that:

Recommendation 106	Tools for enforcing the prudential standards and guidelines and financial reporting obligations of providers
106.1.	From 1 July 2023, the Australian Aged Care Commission should have the power to impose a range of regulatory responses where there has been a breach of the new prudential standards or the financial reporting requirements, including a failure to comply with the continuous disclosure requirements.
106.2.	Such responses should include:
106.2.	(a) the power to give directions to a provider that mirror those that can be made by the Australian Prudential Regulatory Authority pursuant to the Private Health Insurance (Prudential Supervision) Act 2015 (Cth)
106.2.	(b) the power to impose civil and administrative penalties in respect of any breach

Recommendation 121	Requirement of continuing suitability for approval
121.1.	The new Act should provide that approvals are ongoing but subject to continuing suitability, including (in addition to the matters referred to in sections 63D and 63J of the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission Act 2018 (Cth)), the fitness and propriety of the provider and its key personnel, the provider's capacity to deliver high quality and safe services within its scope of approval, and the provider's performance in delivering high quality and safe services of the kinds for which they	, are approved.
121.2.	In cases where the Australian Aged Care Commission becomes aware the approved provider may no longer be suitable to remain a provider or to retain its current scope of services for which it is approved, the Commission must consider on notice to the provider whether to revoke the provider's approval or limit its scope of approval.
