

FEDERAL ELECTION SCORECARD 2022

Dietitians Australia have asked the Liberal National Party, Australian Labor Party and the Greens to complete an election scorecard, rating their commitments to our five federal election requests. The results are below.

On 16 May 2022, the Australian Labor Party (ALP) provided a response to Dietitians Australia's election priorities. The scorecard below has been updated to reflect this response.

Read the full LNP response. Read the full Greens response. Read the full ALP response including their completed scorecard.

AGED CARE Mandatory malnutrition screening in residential and in-home aged care	X	X	✓
AGED CARE Mandating annual food audits in aged care homes by a dietitian, as a condition of receiving the federal $10 basic daily fee supplement.	1/2	X	✓
MENTAL HEALTH Establishing Medicare benefit items to ensure affordable, equal access to be treated by a dietitian for people living with depression.	X	1/2	✓
DISABILITIES Establishing Medicare benefit items to ensure affordable, equal access to be treated by a dietitian for children living with autism, pervasive developmental disorder and disability.	X	X	✓
POLICY Develop a National Nutrition Policy and Implementation Action Plan.	X	✓	✓